

Help The Kiddlies® Practise the FIVE Times Table

- 1 At Saffi's birthday party she invited five friends. They each had five cupcakes. How many cupcakes did the six children eat altogether?
 - 2 Saffi was given a bar chocolate. She broke it into rows. She had eight rows with five squares of chocolate. How many squares of chocolate did she have altogether?
 - 3 Doggly found a pile of bones. He carried one bone at a time and buried it in the garden. He did this five times. How many bones did Doggly hide?
 - 4 William watched his favourite basketball team play. They scored five times in each of the four quarters. How many goals did they score?
 - 5 Saffi was hot so she asked her mother for a glass of lemonade with ice cubes. Her mother got an ice cube tray out of the freezer. Saffi saw that the tray had five rows of eight sections. How many ice cubes could be made in the tray?
 - 6 Doggly was one of five dogs to win two rosettes at a dog obedience class. How many rosettes were given out as prizes altogether?
 - 7 William decided to try and keep fit by jogging. He jogged for five minutes a day for seven days. For how many minutes did William jog altogether?
 - 8 William likes to play marbles with Saffi and Tom. They take the marbles out of a bag. The three children have five marbles each. How many marbles were in the bag?
- BONUS POINT QUESTION: Doggly found another pile of five bones which he hid. How many bones had he hidden altogether now?